MONDAY, AUGUST 17, 1885.

COLLECTOR COX has assigned four colored men to duty in the Louisville district.

The Democratic State Convention of Ohio will be held at Columbus, next Wednesday.

The Habilities of John Roach are $2,222,877.81; nominal assets, $5,108,098.57, and the actual assets, $4,811,473.26.

HON. GREEN R. KELLAR and Colonel E. Polk Johnson are the candidates for Clerk of the Lower House of the Legislature.

Our business failures in the United States last week numbered 151 and in Canada 17. The week previous they were 180.

A LONDON rumor has it that Lord Coleridge has married the American lady with whom his name has recently been connected.

The cholera continues to spread with alarming rapidity in Spain. The total returns show that there were 3,935 new cases and 1,389 deaths.

The First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson has expressed a belief that 2,500 Postmasters will be changed during the month of August, and that the ratio will be increased as the weather grows cooler.

The Prohibitionists of Adams County, Ohio, have nominated the following County ticket: Sheriff, D. A. Morrison; Treasurer, R. P. Finney; Commissioner, John Burbridge; Infirmary Director, Isaiah Dodds.

THERE is to be a grand demonstration in Hyde Park, August 22, on the subject of the Pall Mall Gazette's crusade in defense of the girls of London. Six very sound reasons are offered in favor of the meeting.

WITH eight counties yet to hear from Tait's majority in 63,930, Cleveland's majority at the last election was 34,651. Would it not be a good idea hereafter for the Central Committee to nominate all the candidates?

The Law and Order Party, of Rowan County, held a mass meeting at Morehead last week, and adopted resolutions looking to the suppression of the reckless and criminal classes there and the enforcement of decent local government.

The recent rains in Montgomery and adjacent counties have been accompanied by hail storms unprecedented in their ravages. Tobacco in Eastern Kentucky is greatly damaged, and it is believed in many counties it will not average more than half a crop.

The "Ins" and "Outs" are having trouble over the count of the money in the United States Post-Treasury at San Francisco. There are $93,000,000 in the vaults, and Mr. Spaulding, the present incumbent, wants every dollar of it counted, while Mr. Brooks, the newly appointed sub-Treasurer, is willing to accept the count by weight.

We find the following in the New York Herald:

"None of the newspaper accounts of General Grant's health give us so far information as to his early education. As a boy he attended school with his father, Senator Schuyler, Ky., as a pupil of 'Uncle Billy' Hines, son of the Rev. Dr. Hines, of Frankfort, and Mr. W. H. Wadsworth, member of the last and coming Congress, respectively, from Kentucky."

The academy building is still standing, Billings is still alive, having kept until the last session principal of the Mayville high school, and is now a teacher in the same school boy, and speaks of him as being rather tall and slow of comprehension, but very full of application."

ENTERTAINMENT.

Ruggles' Camp Meeting.

RUGGLES' CAMP, August 14, 1885.

Rev. P. H. Ebright led the six o'clock prayer meeting, which was well attended and deeply spiritual.

At 9 o'clock Rev. S. G. Pollard conducted the experience meeting, which was an especially blessed time, many souls being converted.

At 10:30 Rev. A. Boring, of Covington, preached from John 16, 13: "Howbeit when the spirit of truth is come he will reveal unto you all truth." It was a clear presentation of the office of the Holy Spirit as an infallible guide and teacher in spiritual things and was followed with an altar service, when the altar was crowded with seekers.

The children's service at 2 p. m. was conducted by Miss Edna Vondish, and as usual the chapel was too small to hold those desired to attend it.

Rev. P. H. Ebright preached at 3 p. m. from Matthew 10, 32: "Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." The sermon was a forcible one and plainly set forth the biblical and consequently Wesleyan standard of Christian perfection.

At 4 p. m. Rev. F. G. Gerritson, of Saratoga, preached an able sermon from Revelation 3, 20: "Behold I stand at the door and knock, if any man hear my voice and will open the door I will come in to him and will eat with him and he with me" which was well received and service resulting in five conversions and four additions to the church.

Rev. D. Stevenson, D. D., arrived and will preach Sunday at 10:30 a. m. There is a large crowd of Mayville people here and if we're come it would be easiest to tell who is here by telling who is left at home, but

MORE ANON.

Freight Traffic.

New York, Aug. 17.—In its section the Central Railroad, in which all the railroads tributary to the Trunk lines roads are represented, it was decided to re-establish pools at all points and conduct them under the direction of the Central. The Association agreed to restore rates on east bound freight to 15c schedule of July 13, that is, on the basis of twenty cents per one hundred pounds of grain from Chicago to New York and twenty-five cents per one hundred pounds of grain from St. Louis to New York. The rates will go into effect August 17th. It is argued that with the pools on a money basis there will be no incentive to cut, as the several roads will have to bear the loss of their profits in the pools as a scaling figure. The percentages have not yet been arranged.

Mining in New Mexico.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Aug. 17.—Renewed activity in mining operations is promised here. The Flagler reduction works are in successful operation. Two hundred mills are running full time and the cost of the new mill is about to be let. The Black Hawk district, to the west, has recently made several heavy shipments of ore, which paid off in gold. The pool of the pool out of Georgetown now reaches a weekly average of 12,000 ounces. Heavy ore shipments are also reported from the southern part of the country.

Unsatisty Bribery Investigation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 17.—James Dowling, a man who charged certain members with taking bribes, was the investigating committee, and refused to give any names of parties who took the alleged bribes. He said the charges were made because he had been attacked in the newspapers and that he regretted having been driven to such a course, but he did not say that the charges made were not true. Upon this point he refused to speak.

Abductors Held to Bail.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The case of Bertha Lehman, the young girl whose abduction and subsequent recovery were mentioned in these columns, has been adjourned to allow the important interests at stake in a case of this kind, that even though evidence had been furnished indicating that the girl was not unwillingly victimized, the two men and the woman impaled should be held to the grand jury in $1,000 each for the men and $500 for the woman.

First Indian Territory Cattle.

FOUNT SCOTT, Kan., Aug. 17.—Two train loads of cattle from the Indian Territory, weighing nine hundred head, passed through here, en route to Chicago, making the first to make their exit from the territory under the president's order. These cattle were brought over the St. Louis, Fort Scott & Wichita railroad from the ranch of Austin cattle company, one hundred and sixty-five miles west of Harper county.

Excursions of Philadelphia Officials.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—Mayor Smith, accompanied by Chief of Police Steers, etc., Tax Receiver, J. J. Quinn, James L. Miles, Frank F. Brightley, Isaac H. Shields, Dr. E. O. Shakespeare, and Dr. M. J. French started on a trip to Glen Summit, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

BRIEF ITEMS.

The Daily News Narrated Down for the Harry Nease.

Henry Frease was hanged at Catlettsburg, Ky., in the presence of a great crowd for the murder of Chester Honaker last May.

John C. Beauchamp, "Johnny the Stake," confidence man, has been sentenced to two years in the Missouri penitentiary.

Princess Second, the fine cow owned by Mrs. S. M. Shoemaker, of Washington, D. C., died. Her owner had refused $25,000 for her.

C. P. Judd, of Colorado, appointed special agent of the labor bureau, and arrested for horse stealing, has had his commission revoked.

A case with all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera occurred on a farm near Canonsburg, Pa. The victim was an Irish girl lately arrived.

The schedules of John Roach & Son's assets and liabilities will be filed. The liabilities are $15,198,995.77, while the assets are $2,232,995.

Cartwright, McCurdy & Co., proprietors of one of the largest Youngstown, Ohio, rolling mills, have signed the scale, and will start up Monday.

E. C. Thompson, of Toledo, was awakened by a burglar, who at the point of a revolver relieved him of money and jewelry to the value of $500.

A party of Montana cattlemen, coming up with a party of Sioux Indians, with their horses, killed the entire number of Redskins.

AN OPEN LETTER

In Which all Ladies are Deeply Interested.

READ IT.

BAILEY, GA., November 6, 1884.

Gentlemen:

I have been using your wonderful remedy, "Dr. Bradfield's Female Regulator," in my family for a long time, and I want to say to the suffering ones of my sex that there never was anything to equal it. Would to God that every afflicted woman in our land knew of its wonderful virtues and curative powers as I do. I have used a great deal of it since the birth of my last child, about a year and a half ago, and I do think had it not been for this valuable medicine, I would have been but thanks to a kind Providence, I was directed to its use, and my life and health have been spared me. If my means would admit of it, I would never be without it in my house.

I have recommended it to a number of my friends, and without exception they have all been wonderfully relieved and cured. I give this indorsement without solicitation and freely, for the benefit of the suffering ones of my sex. Very respectfully,

MRS. ANNA RAMP.

Meant to Sneak in Town.
Malaria gases sneak up through the poorly constructed drains and made baby very sick with malarial fever. Baby would have died but for timely use of Brown's Iron Bitters. There is nothing nearer its way of coming, nor worse in its effects, than this malarial from the underground regions. Mrs. McDonald, of New Haven, Conn., says: "For six years I suffered from the effects of malaria, but Brown's Iron Bitters cured me entirely." Try it when malaria steals in and undermines your constitution.

D., the greatest pulpit orator of the race, a graduate of Kings College, England, and who was lately tendered the Mission to Liberia by President Cleveland. Rev. Peter Vinegar, the "lion of the blue grass," will deliver the opening sermon of the meeting, Thursday evening at 1:30 p.m. Other distinguished divines will constantly be on hand.

SAVAGE AFFRAY

Resulting in the Wounding of Both Participants.

A bloody affray that has created considerable excitement and feeling in this city and vicinity, and which may yet result fatally to one of the participants, occurred last Saturday, about noon, near the Baldwin homestead, on Jersey Ridge, between Darin Moran and William Wells, two farmers who reside in Mayfield precinct No. 2. Wells was slightly wounded in the right leg between the ankle and knee, by a pistol shot, fired by Moran, and Moran received serious wounds by being beaten over the head by Wells with a green sugar tree club or cane.

They have been at odds with each other for some time, the trouble between them dating back to last Christmas, and originating at a shooting match on Lawrence Creek, at which Wells and his two sons, Willie and Johnie, became involved in a dispute with Moran about a turkey, or the price of a turkey, an account of which affair appeared in the papers of this city and caused considerable controversy between the parties and their friends at that time. A pistol, rocks, and the dead turkey figured in this first fus of weapons.

Moran and Wells, the principal parties in this affair, as well as in all the others that have taken place between them since, were both arrested and fined shortly afterwards, the former before "Square Jim" Chamberlain and the latter before "Square M. F. Marsh." But this did not end the matter. Instead, however, it seemed but to add fuel to the dispute. Moran is a good, sociable and clever fellow, when sober, and is not disposed to fight or quarrel without just provocation; but, like a great many other good clever fellows, he is addicted to that ruinous and demoralizing habit of imbibing too freely whenever liquor is to be obtained.

Whenever under the influence of liquor his whole nature was changed. He became factious and quarrelsome. As a party was overheard to say last Saturday, "We will quarrel with his best friend, when intoxicated." On the other hand, Wells is more peaceably disposed, and, since the first quarrel between them, has always manifested a disposition to resort to the courts for a redress of his grievances.

The old saying, "Tall oaks from little acorns grow," figuratively speaking, finds a verification in this trouble. The little dispute over a turkey, or its price, last January, has, at the present stage, grown into a fierce and bitter quarrel.

Since their first trouble, numerous quarrels have taken place between them, but both parties being, perhaps, at times, at fault, to some extent.

In the early part of last week, Wells preferred a charge against Moran of using abusive and insulting language, and had "Square Vicroy issue a warrant for Moran's arrest on said charge." The warrant had been served and Moran was bound for his appearance for trial before said justice last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. This was the state of affairs last Saturday morning when Wells and Moran met at the residence of the late John Baldwin, deceased, on the Jersey Ridge turnpike, a short distance from town, where a public sale was going on. As to the particulars of the affair, between them there are, of course, different reports.

A representative of the BULLETIN has endeavored to get the facts in the case as near as possible. From an eye witness of the affray, who was present and saw the whole trouble, the following were learned:

It was about noon. The sale closed or was nearly over. The parties who had attended were leaving. Wells and his son, William, got in a buck-wagon and started away, going out the road that leads from Baldwin's house to the Jersey Ridge turnpike. When nearing the junction of the roads Moran was seen standing on the picket with a cane or club in his hand. According to the statements of some party he had been drinking considerably. As Wells approached, Moran applied some epithet to him and alluded to the warrant that had been issued for him at his (Wells') instigation earlier in the week. Some words passed between them when Moran raised his club and struck Wells on the shoulder as he was getting out of the wagon on the side opposite to him. As the blow was struck, Wells grabbed the club and prevented himself from falling to the ground. He then wrangled the club out of Moran's hands and started towards his horse's head. Moran immediately drew his pistol and fired at Wells over the horse's back. This shot not taking effect, Moran next fired underneath the horse, the ball striking Wells in the right leg below the knee, ranging down and around the leg and lodging a few inches above the ankle joint. Wells passed on around the horse's head and as Moran was attempting to fire the third shot, struck him on the arm and knocked the pistol out of his hand. As Moran stooped over to recover his pistol Wells struck him with the club on the back part of the head, felling him to the earth. While in this position Moran was beaten over the head by Wells until a spectator interfered and stopped the bloody business. Moran was insensible for sometime. His wounds were afterwards dressed by Dr. James Shackelford, who pronounced them serious, but not necessarily fatal.

Wells came to this city after the trouble and was placed in custody. The ball was, later on in the day, extracted from his leg by Dr. Shackelford. His wound is not of a serious character. He was admitted to hall in the sum of $500 by "Square Grant and Vicroy, for his appearance before them, this morning, for trial.

At the instance of some of Moran's friends a warrant was also issued for William Wells, Jr., charging him with cutting and stabbing with intent to kill. They claim that young Wells during the melee cut and stabbed Moran in several places. This, however, is probably a mistake, as one who witnessed the affray exonerates the younger Wells from any blame. Wells' friends claim that his son was engaged during the trouble in taking care of the horse they were driving and preventing him from running off, and this claim is borne out by an eye-witness of the affair.

Life at Escalpia.

ESCALPIA SPRINGS, Lewis Co., Aug. 14. There are now over one hundred and twenty-five guests at this popular resort and many better pleased people it would be difficult to find. The weather is exceptionally so situated in a deep valley in the mountains, that no matter how high the temperature, it never looks warm here. On the hottest day, looking out from the large piazza on the terrace of the hotel, one sees a great expanse of forest, glade, green, cool and inviting, and only a few yards distant. There is abundance of grass and shade around the house, but the favorite resort during the heat of the day is a large arbor, the sides of which a person can sit in and always be cool. As the traveler comes on the road from Mayfield, he sees before him a long three story building just beyond a little brook. As he drives up to the stile he is met by a crowd of people, all in a great procession, as if attending a wedding, to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Remedy, which apparently upsets the party. Above the arbor is a sign reading "The Inn Litching, and affecting a permanent residence.

THE GRIM DESTROYER.

THE TERRIBLE SCOURGE REAPING WHOLESALE DEATH.

Fearful Mortality at Marseilles and Dropped Dead in the Streets of Grenada. Dumped Into Trenches—in Service—Foreign News Notes.

MARSEILLES, Aug. 17.—The mortality is decreasing; no grossly concerning the number of dead. The total reached eighty-five. About fifty were cases of cholera. There were forty-two deaths by cholera out of a mortality list of seventy-seven. At the First of August.

Many of the steamship companies are discontinuing their service. The rigor of quarantine paralyzes commerce. The situation is serious. At the First of August there were instantaneaous deaths occurred. The municipal council protests against the report of Dr. Brouardel to the academy of medicine, in which it was said that the cholera had raged more severely at Marseilles than anywhere else.

The president of the hospital commission, whom has just been seen, hopes that the epidemic will be less severe than in 1854. But he recommends the exceptional severity of affairs.

Typhus took control daily victims. The cholera has appeared in the townships of the department. The prefect has gone thither with two specialists. The heat is extreme. Many Italians are returning to their country.

The ravages of the cholera in Grenada are horrible.

Scores of the victims of the disease drop and die in the streets, while in many cases, the remains for hours before they are gathered up for a hurried and unceremonious burial in a common trench.

There is now an excitement in Seville over the government proposal to abolish the power of the local authorities during the prevalence of the cholera, because of its inefficiency in sanitation, and to itself assume the direction of the city's internal affairs.

The popular idea has been to submit all to any interference in family affairs, and they strongly support the local authorities.

Great crowds assembled in the public places to discuss the situation, and the civil guard was called out to keep order.

The Italian government is arranging to convey poor Italians employed at Marseilles and along the French coast by rail to Italy in order to be able to supervise their labor and protect them from infection with cholera.

The Informa newspaper, of Rome, protests against this action as calculated to introduce cholera into Italy, and insists that poor Italians returning home from the infected districts should be compelled to travel by water and be subjected to quarantine before being allowed to land.

The Fury of a Storm.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—From the Scottish coasts give thrilling accounts of the predicted hurricane. The Norwegian bark Himalaya, bound for Falmouth, this morning, was wrecked on the rocks near Nairn.

The crew were gallantly rescued by the Nairn life boat in a gale of a tremendous surf.

The boats of the herring fleet were at sea and were caught by the tempest. As many as six hundred men were at sea from Fransburg alone, and up to a late hour only 400 had arrived.

The utmost anxiety is being felt as to the safety of the remaining men. Many disasters occur in the endeavor to reach the land.

One boat belonging to Stornoway was wrecked and another belonging to Burghhead ran ashore, but the crews of both were saved. Several fishing yaws were broken to pieces on the beach.

Lord Coleridge Marries.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, a privately married to Miss Amy Augusta Jackson, the young American lady whose acquaintance he made on board the steamer on which he returned from his recent visit to the United States. The Death Roll.

MARSHAL, Aug. 17.—Four thousand eight hundred and nineteen new cases of cholera are reported for the past twenty-four hours from the infected districts throughout Spain, and 1,840 deaths.

A Large Rice Crop in Louisiana.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 17.—Reports from Little Rock state that the rice crop will be the largest ever gathered. It is estimated that the season has been favorable and the crop is in excellent condition, the stand being good and the growth thrifty. Harvesting has commenced in various parishes. Complaint is made of the scarcity of laborers, and it is expressed that much of the crop may be left ungathered. The yield will run from 600,000 to 700,000 sacks.

One Arrow Less.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 17.—One Arrow and Indian chief and one of Poundmaker's assessors have been tried at Fort Garry and found guilty of treasonable offenses. On hearing the result he said: "White man had a big talk all to himself, now; wait a little, and One Arrow will talk and tell what he knows." All the trials will be over in a few days.

Cut Down in Time.

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Aug. 17.—Eva Brown, a pretty mulatto girl, sixteen years old, daughter of respectable parents, living near this city, attempted suicide by hanging, but was cut down by a younger sister just in time to save her life. Her mother, who had her marriage to an colored negro who had been paying his address to her,

A Photographer's Funeral Courtship. Fatal Brain Disease.

DALTON, Ga., Aug. 17.—A strange brain disease of great fatality is raging in the northern part of Georgia, and in four hours. In one neighborhood in Murray county six deaths occurred in one day, three being in one family. In another place five persons died in one day.
